Excessive Nervousness from Childhood.
La Grippe Brings on Heart Weakness.

REV. B. P. SEAREY, pastor M. E. church, Buchanan, Ga. writes Dec. 10, 1893: "In childhood I was afflicted with excessive nervousness, which, almost developed into St. Vitus dance. I partly recovered, but at college it gradually grew worse. Close study aggravated the trouble; any unusual exertion caused trembling all over. In 1890 I had a severe attack of La Grippe which brought on heart weakness. I had been almost constantly under treatment for nervous troubles, and changed climates frequently without avail. Last February I began taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and Nerve and Liver Pills and since then I have been studying more and working harder than for years and the good effects that have resulted seem to be permanent." Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle sold for or money refunded. Book on Heart and Nervousness free to all applicants. DR. BRYAN'S campaign last fall has proven an excellent preliminary advertisement for his book.

Four days after taking office McKinley had 5,000 applications for 400 offices. Somebody will have to be disappointed.

Wheat still keeps up and silver keeps down despite the free silver argument that these two go up and down together.

Most people agree with Vice President Hobart when he thinks the senate should be governed by reasonable business methods.

ALL things come to those who wait seems to be the motto adopted by office seekers in Washington who are hoping the lightning may strike them.

THERE are plenty of men who can be employed now to help make repairs to roads and bridges damaged by the high water. They should be put to work and all repairs made as speedily as possible.

The indeterminate sentence bill will have a wholesome effect in reducing the applications for pardon. Every man's release will be dependent upon his conduct while in prison.

The Kentucky legislature in special session will attract the politicians at attention throughout the country. Who will be chosen United States senator is the question quite hard to answer just now.

STILL it is evident that the market price of wheat and silver are not naturally yoked together as free silver advocates so long contended. Much of the argument of the free silver people is destroyed by the price of wheat remaining as high as it has been for the past few months.

The appropriations made by the legislature year are less in amount than the appropriations were two years ago. The aggregate of the appropriation then was very much less than made by democratic legislatures previous to that time. The republicans have been paying off the state debt instead of adding to it as the democrats did.

Now that the curfew ordinance has passed and in a week will be in force it behooves all good citizens to see that it is enforced. Parents should at once respect the ordinance and see that their children obey it. Officers whose duty it is to enforce its provisions should do so without fear of criticism. The full text of the ordinance can be found in another column of today's REPUBLICAN.

The Crothersville Commercial says that Grover Cleveland seems to have had an ambition to be the last democratic president. The Commercial was once a Cleveland organ, and certainly can't say now that the ex-president has changed his views to any great extent. The change has been on the part of those who now hate him, but who once idolized him. They hate him because he refused to denounce his own honest convictions.

ARBITRATION as a method of settling national disputes is gaining ground rapidly. The arrangement of a treaty between this country and England has opened the way for other countries. Norway has appointed a committee of nine to consider the matter of negotiating arbitration treaties. Switzerland also has arbitration in view. Our senate should ratify the treaty promptly and thus make a precedent the more effective. It is gratifying to know that the United States took the initiative in the present treaty and if a general policy of arbitration should be adopted throughout the world the large part of the credit for it will belong to our country.

The situation in Seymour is very different today as compared to what it was a week ago. Then no trains were arriving or departing. No mails were being received and news away from home was hard to get. A large part of the county was under water and the people knew that great damage was being done by the high water. Trains today are running and even if somewhat irregular the people are not complaining. The inconveniences of a few days has caused the people here to appreciate the conveniences they are accustomed to enjoy.

When bilious or constive, eat a Cascara, candy cathartic, cure guaranteed 10c., 25c.

Dangers of the Grip.

The greatest danger from lagrippe is of its resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for la grippe, we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventive of that dread disease. It will effect a permanent cure in less time than any other treatment. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by C. W. Milhous, druggist.

The Fact That Doctors
Frequently advise change of air and climate to those suffering from catarrh is proof that catarrh is a local and climatic disease. Therefore, unless you can leave home and business, you should use Ely's Cream Balm. Applied directly to the seat of the disease, it effects instant relief and a satisfactory cure after short continuance. No mercury nor injurious drug is contained in the Balm.

The Recent Down-Pour.
People who suffered by the extraordinary rainfall of Thursday night may find some comfort in the thought that they are not likely to suffer again in the same way. Never in the entire history of the Weather Bureau has such an extraordinary down-pour occurred in this vicinity. A fall of rain of more than an inch is regarded as a heavy rain, but when such a fall is multiplied by about 5, as was that of the sixteen hours following 6:15 Thursday evening it became a weather event from which weather history in this locality can henceforth be dated and compared. The average total rainfall for the entire 365 days is but five times what Thursday night's rainfall amounted to.—Cincinnati Times Star.

The bride is the daughter of James S. Clements and the groom is the son of the county clerk, Capt. Byford E. Long. Both are well known and have a large circle of friends who, even at this late day, extend hearty congratulations. Their marriage announcement was quite a surprise especially to their most intimate friends.

John B. McLean's Great Newspaper.

Without a single exception, there is beyond doubt no greater or more popular newspaper in the United States than the Cincinnati Enquirer; or a more successful publisher than its proprietor, Mr. John B. McLean.

The old-time prices for the Daily Enquirer have been maintained, and its circulation largely increased each year; hard times and cheaper journals failing to arrest its onward march and high appreciation of the public for its true worth and merit.

The Weekly Enquirer at beginning of the campaign year was offered at 50 cents a year, and its circulation increased by the addition of over 200,000 new subscribers; the most substantial and coveted testimonial a publisher could desire.

When asked for the secret of such success, Mr. McLean frankly answers: The Enquirer has no opinions to force upon its patrons, it simply prints the facts and tells the truth that the reader may form his own opinions. By maintaining the price of the paper, more news and greater variety can be furnished, and every class of business interests catered to, which a cheaper journal cannot afford.

The very liberal support given the Enquirer by the public at large makes incumbent upon the management to serve it faithfully with zeal and enterprise in minor matters as well as those of greater magnitude.

Taking Poll of Precincts.
House bill number 513, which is one of the laws recently enacted, is of considerable importance. It authorizes the taking of a poll of the precincts of the state by any political party, and requires that the poll taker shall have a certificate of his authority from his political chairman. It is made the duty of the people to furnish the poll-taker with correct information as to the name, residence, and qualifications for voting of persons living in their houses or boarding with them. Withholding such information or furnishing false information is punished by a fine of $25 and the poll-taker who knowingly returns a false list is punishable by a fine of $500, to which, in either case, may be added imprisonment for six months.

To Cure a Cold in One Day
Take laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. 25c.

Danger Along the Mississippi.
The flood situation is becoming serious along the Mississippi, the danger being augmented by snows in the north and rains in the south. At Memphis the river is more than a foot above the danger line and still rising, and there are fears that the river will cut a new bed through Arkansas and leave Memphis an inland city. There is much damage in the lowland. The levees below Memphis are in good condition and can stand eight feet more water.

Dangers of the Grip.
The greatest danger from lagrippe is of its resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for the grippe, we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventive of that dread disease. It will effect a permanent cure in less time than any other treatment. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by C. W. Milhous, druggist.

"The Missouri Girl."
Sadie Raymond and a company of capable actors gave us one of the best entertainments last night that we have seen in years. Hubbell's opera house was crowded from the stage to the gallery and standing room was at a premium. Too much cannot be said in praise of the laughable comedy, Daisy, The Missouri Girl. The audience was delighted with the excellent performance and attested its approval by frequent applause. The singing and dancing by Miss Raymond and the inimitable Fred was first class, the jolly pair introducing new and original step in the fascinating art.—Commercial Vincennes, Ind.

Old People.
Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whiskey nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alternative. It sets mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price fifty cents and $1.00 per bottle at W. F. Peter, successor to J. H. Andrews & Co.'s drug store.

Taking Aim.
An exchange gives the hint that an advertisement written "at somebody" is as easy to write as a letter. The suggestion is of some value in the sense that an advertisement aimed at a definite mark is more apt to be fired confidently and resultfully than one shot into the air. It is not always easy to be specific in addressing a large public; but the shrewd advertiser does it by taking the public in sections, seeking out specific wants as determined by the weather, the time of year, the fashions, etc., and firing point blank at them. And this is the sort of advertising which with the right aim and right weapon of publicity, always brings down the results.

The city was full of country people yesterday and to-day on business.

The gravel and dirt roads have never been so badly washed as they are now. William Knost, a successful farmer east of Honeytown, drove up to the city last evening on business.

White river is steadily falling. Many of the bottom lands are drying off nicely and farmers will have a large amount of extra spring work to do before getting ready to plant their crops.

Poultry Farming.
Farm Poultry says that Isaac Wilbur, of Little Compton, R. I., has the largest poultry farm in the world. He ships from 130,000 to 150,000 dozen of eggs a year. He keeps his fowls on the colony plan, housing about forty in a house 8x10 or 8x12 feet in size, these houses being about 150 feet apart, set out in long rows over the gently sloping fields. He has one hundred of these houses scattered over three or four fields. The food is loaded into a low wagon, which is driven about to each house in turn, the attendant feeding as he goes; at the afternoon feeding the eggs are collected. The fowls are fed twice a day. The morning feed is a mash of cooked vegetables and mixed meals; this mash is made up the afternoon of the day before. The afternoon feed is whole corn the year round.

THE MERCHANT'S DAUGHTER.
Her father was a merchant bold
Who o'er the wild Biscayan water
Still brought back the good red gold
To richly dower his only daughter.
Radiant she as rose on tree;
But, though full many a gallant sought
No, and on all their woo
Frowned back the merchant's daughter.
Until, effulgent from the fight
That shook the shores from France to Flanders,
Shone upon her patriot sight
The kindest of our sea commanders,
Looked her through, and from her view
Vanished smiling, on the morrow,
Ah! but she her laughing glee
Forsook for sighing sorrow.
"Fair blows the wind; the skies are blue.
With sail with me, my winsome daughter!"
"That will I! Dear friends, adieu!"
And o'er the wave her sire has caught
her.
Southward far, by sun and star,
His good ship fleets the ocean over,
When, aloft! across her track
There strikes a Salvo rover.
But as the pirate pressed them sore,
And deck and hold ran red with slambang
Budden round the headland hoar
A noble warship sweeps the water.
Heavens above! 'tis her true love
That hath this great deliverance wrought
her.
Grief, farewell! wake, marriage bell.
For our blest merchant's daughter!

"My shop was constantly trading the various clothes of the domestic and the foreigner. Although I was advised by the every foreigner, at this time I have made the nice handkerchief of the different specious silk and begun to sell it. Then I was observed with the honor on the several portions. Thence whatever will perform truly for something, and it will sell lower price for everybody's wants. Please I beg consequently to obtain the more favors and the many produces. But the all colors of the handkerchiefs that be done by the one method with free hurtless for washing it."

Gratitude.
Gratitude is a short cut to sincere and lasting friendship. Some people complain that they have no friends. Have they never had a favor done to them? Why, every man has had a score of favors done him every day of his life! Those who bear it in mind, who say a word of hearty thanks, who watch a chance to do a favor in return, never lack friends.

LIFE AND MCELLEHAN.

Their First Meeting as Described by the Latter After the Civil War.

Entertaining papers giving reminiscences of "The Lost Cause" were read in this city at a meeting of the Daughters of the Confederacy. In a paper prepared by Mr. George Savage and read by Mrs. D. Giraud Wright was described the first meeting of General Robert E. Lee and General George B. McClellan, as General McClellan had related the facts to Mr. Savage in the summer of 1878.

"It was near the City of Mexico during the Mexican war," said General McClellan to Mr. Savage, "that I first met my future great opposing commander. I was a Lieutenant of engineers and Lee was a major of engineers and a favorite on the staff of General Winfield Scott. I was walking across a field one day when I saw General Scott and his staff approaching on horseback. As the party drew near to me Major Lee reined up his horse and, addressing me in an angry tone, said:

"Lieutenant, don't you know you are disobeying orders? What is your name?"

"I told him my name was McClellan and that I did not know I was disobeying orders."

"All officers have been told to remain in their quarters and await orders," he exclaimed, still appearing very angry.

"I replied that no such order had reached me, and he then peremptorily ordered me back to my quarters, and hastened away to join General Scott and the rest of the staff, who had not stopped."

"I returned across the field to my quarters, feeling much injured, for I had not knowingly committed any breach of discipline. I complained to my fellow officers of Major Lee's treatment of me. Scarcely had I finished my story when I was told that there was an officer outside who wished to see me, and I was greatly surprised to find Major Lee seated there upon his horse. He saluted and I returned the salute.

"Lieutenant McClellan," said he, "I fear that in our meeting just now I was discourteous in tone or manner, and I have come to express to you the regret which, under the circumstances, a gentleman should."

"I assured him that it was all right, and with a salute and a low bow, which I feelingly returned, he rode away, leaving me lost in admiration of a superior officer who could so promptly and so generously repair an error."—Baltimore Sun.

The Kaffirs.
The Kaffirs are great philosophers. If an ox should die, the owner never grieves, but remarks: "Now I must go to work for master (all white men who treat them well are called masters), and in six months he will give me a cow. It will have a calf. If it is a bull calf, in a year I'll have a pair of oxen, but should it be a heifer calf I'm all the richer, for the next year I'll have two calves instead of one."—New York Tribune.

From Cripple Creek.
After the big fire in Cripple Creek, I took a very severe cold and tried many remedies without help, the cold only becoming more settled. After using three small bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, both the cough and cold left me, and in this high altitude it takes a meritorious cough remedy to do any good.—G. B. WORK ON THE TARIFF

Wool Schedule Takes Manufacturers and Growers to Washington.

REPETITION OF MCKINLEY ACT.

Effort Made to Change Ad Valorem to Specific Rates—Committee of Experts Work on the Schedule—Reciprocity Principal Embodied in the Bill—Other Washington News.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—The work of the Republican members of the ways and means committee on the wool schedule has brought the wool growers and manufacturers to Washington in full force. They filled the lobby of the Cochran hotel yesterday while the tariff makers were in conference in the upstairs room, and when the members emerged each one of them was surrounded by a group of wool men endeavoring to impress upon their victim the urgent needs of their particular branch of the business. Chairman Dingley was half an hour running the gauntlet to the hotel door. He listened with patience to every statement, but the results do not show that representatives of special interests gain anything by coming to Washington to present their cases in person.

After 24 hours of work on the second half of the wool schedule, that covering manufacturers of wool, the duties have been made practically a repetition of the McKinley bill. The McKinley rates on raw wools having been re-adapted, it was considered the only logical arrangement to adopt also the compensatory duties on manufacturers of wool of the McKinley law, so this policy was followed. There was an attempt made to change the ad valorem rates on woolen manufactures in the McKinley act to specific, but such great difficulties have been encountered that the undertaking has been abandoned, for the time being at any rate, and last night the committee had practically decided to accept the wool schedule of the McKinley act.

A committee of experts devoted some time to the work of resolving the ad valorem factors of the wool schedule to corresponding specific rates, but the results of their labors proved so unsatisfactory to Chairman Dingley that the scheme was rejected. It is possible that the attempt will be renewed when the bill is before the full ways and means committee to change the ad valorem features of this schedule to equivalent specific rates, but the bill as it will be introduced into the house will contain the McKinley wool schedule without material changes except the changes in the classification of wools which were made Thursday.

The reciprocity principle which will be embodied in the bill will be that of lower duties on certain classes of goods in return for concessions to certain lines of American goods. The principal lines of goods on which duties may be lowered by reciprocity treaties will be sugar, champagne, silks, gloves, mineral waters, chicory (much of which is imported for chewing gum) and argil, or crude tartar, which is one of the chief constituents of baking powder.

The president will be empowered by the bill to enter into treaties by which the duties will be materially lowered on importation of these goods from countries which make concessions to American cattle and other products. There will be no reciprocity which involves placing any important classes of imports on the free list, nor any authority given the executive to raise duties against imports from countries which refuse to enter into reciprocity treaties.

THOUSANDS IN LINE.
Secretary Bliss and Ex-Secretary Francis received Interior Department employees.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Secretary Bliss and Mr. Francis, his predecessor, received the employees of the interior department yesterday afternoon. It was the formal leaving of the retiring head of the department and the first meeting between Mr. Bliss and those in the department. The employees numbered over 8,000 and passed in line through the secretary's office grouped by bureaus and divisions. Each division was introduced by the division chiefs and all the employees took occasion to say a few words of farewell to Mr. Francis.

Decrease in Immigration.
WASHINGTON, March 13.—A statement prepared at the immigration bureau shows that during the six months ended Dec. 31, 1896, the number of immigrants who arrived in this country was 149,808, a decrease, as compared with the same period in 1895, of 42,300. For the month of January last the decrease, as compared with January, 1896, was 3,325, making the total decrease for the seven months of 45,525. This is said to be largely due to the difficulties and uncertainties attending a landing in this country.

Army Orders.
WASHINGTON, March 13.—Major Willard Wells, commissary of subsistence, has been ordered from the department of California to New York, as assistant to the purchasing commissary. Captain Paul Clendinning, assistant surgeon, has been transferred from Fort Warren, Mass., to Key West barracks, Fla., relieving Captain J. F. Kean, assistant surgeon, who is transferred to Fort Warren.

McMillin Appointed Chairman.
WASHINGTON, March 13.—Ex-Governor Chauncey M. Black, president of the National Association of Democratic Clubs, yesterday appointed Benton McMillin of Tennessee, chairman of the executive committee, which was arranged for by the convention held last summer in St. Louis. The balance of the committee will be appointed by President Black next week.

Indiana and Illinois—Generally fair, slight changes in temperature.
Ohio—Fair and slightly colder.

DESIRE A CLOSER UNION.

President Kruger of the Transvaal Visits the Orange Free State.

BLERFONTEIN, Orange Free State, March 13.—President Kruger of the Transvaal republic has arrived here with the view of arranging for a closer union between the Transvaal and the Orange Free State. He was entertained at a public luncheon and in replying to the eulogistic toasts of President Steyn of the Orange Free State, he said he was not there to controvert the queen's rights. Time, he added, would show he had always defended her majesty (cheers) and he had told his people to respect her. He expressed the hope that the two republics would form individual ties. He never, however, had any idea of the Free State being absorbed by the transvaal.

Continuing, President Kruger said he knew he had to abide by the London convention. The queen was a troublesome woman and it was therefore necessary to deal with the question of the union with utmost caution. He hoped some day to see a union of the whole of Africa.

MOST ALL ESCAPED.

Ferocious Position of Fishermen on the Ice in Saginaw Bay.

SEEWING, Mich., March 13.—The heavy wind yesterday broke up the ice on Saginaw bay. One hundred and fifty fishermen, of whom about half are from Bay City, were on the ice about four miles from shore. Most all escaped to Maison and Lone Tree island. It is reported that five men from Bay City are on the ice and have been carried out with the flow. The wind has shifted to the northwest and will probably bring the ice back. It is very cold. About 400 worth of nets and 20 shanties were carried out from the settlement near here. Last year about 40 men were carried out, but were rescued by boats after being on the ice two days.

KENTUCKY LEGISLATURE.

Blue Grass Lawmakers Meet in Extra Session at Frankfort.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 13.—Governor W. O. Bradley enumerates 42 subjects for the consideration of the lawmakers, who meet in extraordinary session here today, some of them trivial, others of vital importance to the welfare of the state. The last item in the bill of particulars is "the election of a United States senator, to fill the vacancy in said office upon the expiration of the temporary term of Hon. A. T. Wood."

Advertise For Armoplate Bids.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—The long-expected advertisement calling for the supply of armor for the battleships 7, 8 and 9 was at last issued by the navy department yesterday. Some of the points of the advertisement are that, in addition to steelmakers, the builders of the battleships are invited to bid for supplying this armor, thus giving an opportunity for a practical test of the proposition of the construction bureau that the government make contracts for a complete ship, armor included, in the interest of economy. No foreign armor can be supplied.

Turks Want American Ironclads.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 13.—In semi-official circles here it is positively asserted that the administration of the sultan's civil list is negotiating with the United States for the purchase of two or three ironclads which have already been completed in the United States, and it is added that the sum of $200,000 has already been paid on account.

Target Practice Successful.

CHARLESTON, March 13.—The monitor Amphitrite arrived yesterday afternoon, having with it the monitor Tormentor, which has been engaged in target practice and fleet evolutions beyond the harbor for several days. The practice is said to have been very successful and a cause of much congratulation to Captains Ware and Harrington.

Turkish Consul General Appeals.

NEW YORK, March 13.—Appeal was taken yesterday from the decision of Judge Addison Brown of the United States circuit court in the case of Joseph A. Islahi, Turkish consul general at Boston, which held that the latter was amenable to the courts of Massachusetts in the case of his alleged embezzlement of trust funds.

Harbor Improvement Bill Vetoed.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 13.—Governor Mount yesterday afternoon sent to the secretary of state, with a veto message, the Wolf Lake harbor improvement bill. The bill and the veto message will lie in the office of the secretary of state until 1899, when they will be submitted to the new general assembly for further action.

Governor Bradley Writes "Refused" Across Scott Jackson's Petition.

PROBABLE RESPITE FOR WALLING

Scott Jackson Was Startled at the Announcement—He Will Now Make an Effort For a Respite of Thirty Days. Walling Is Hopeful of Commutation to Imprisonment For Life.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 13.—Governor Bradley late last evening wrote "refused" across the back of the petition and record in the case of Scott Jackson, murderer of Pearl Bryan, over which he has been pouring for two days.

There are the best of reasons, except the governor's own word, for believing that he is going to respite Walling for as much as three or four days. He will pass on Walling's case today.

JACKSON INFORMED.

Announcement Startled Him and His Face Deeply Flushed.

ALEXANDRIA, Ky., March 13.—When the information concerning the action Governor Bradley had taken in his case was conveyed to Scott Jackson he rammed his hands into his trouser pockets, his face deeply flushed, he gazed at the floor and buried himself in deep thought. It was evident that the announcement startled him, and he said, "Is that so?"

Upon being asked what he had to say, his reply was, "Nothing."

When asked if he would make an effort to get a respite, he said:

"I certainly shall. I will try to get the governor to give me 30 days more time. I'll tell you there is always a possibility of something new turning up in a matter of this kind, and it may turn up in my case. I shall ask the governor to give me 30 days time, at least a respite, with the possibility of something being learned that will be to my advantage. My innocence may be proved at any moment, and you know it is an awful thing to take the life of an innocent man."

The prisoner requested that he be the first to break the news of the governor's action to his mother, which request was complied with and he later told his mother, and had nothing further to say in regard to his case.

Walling Is Hopeful.

While the conversation with Scott Jackson was being carried on Alonzo Walling stood by and heard every word which passed between the reporter and his companion. His first question after Jackson had ceased to talk was "Did you hear about my case?"

When told that the governor was working upon it he said that it was natural and right that his case should be acted upon last as Colonel Crawford, Jackson's attorney, was there ahead of him. This was all he had to say.

Walling talked very little of the case to either Jackson or the death watch before Governor Bradley's decision in Jackson's case was known, but once when he was asked a question he glanced furtively at Jackson and then wrote his answer on the back of an envelope, which he gave to Guard Murray. The answer was that he, Walling, expected a commutation of his sentence to life imprisonment and that Jackson would be made sometime today.

This was the first expression that either man had given concerning the expected action of the chief executive of the state.

Mrs. Walling, when told of the news from Frankfort, that it was almost a certainty that Walling would be respited, was visibly affected. She said that she hoped it was true, that her son had a new lease at least on life.

She said she always believed that the governor would be merciful. Her plea to Jackson to tell all he knew and save her son would probably be made sometime today.

Visitors at the Jail.

Among the callers at the jail was a Miss Thompson of Cincinnati, who is a friend of the prisoners. She was admitted at their request. Deathwatch Cottingham took his station beside Jackson, while Wagner stood beside Miss Thompson and timed her for the 15 minutes allowed. Miss Thompson

Many people walk on the very edge of danger all unconsciously. They do not wake up to the truth that the slight symptoms of weakness which they feel may, at any time, take a plunge into serious or fatal illness.

Once the "running-down" process begins it is a fearful and relentless thing how it will end. To stop the loss of vitality and build up your strength and weight to the normal, healthy standard, there is nothing equal to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It vitalizes the blood and promotes a rapid production of the life-giving red corpuscles. It promotes perfect digestion; enables the liver to eliminate the bile; cleanses out of the circulation, arrests the formation of morbid deposits in the vital organs and builds up new and healthy tissues. For thirty years it has been recognized as the only perfect and radical cure for all ailments of the blood, resulting from impoverished blood.

"I was taken ill in February, 1894, with a headache and pain in my back," writes H. G. Biddle, Esq., of No. 315 J Street, Tacoma, Wash. "I called in a doctor and he came three times. He said I was bilious, but I kept getting worse. I took a cough so that I could not sleep and I was getting propped in bed. My lungs hurt me, and I got so poor that I was just skin and bone. I tried a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, recommended for a cough. I tried a bottle of it and it did me so much good that I tried another one, and it made me sound and well, so I can recommend it to everybody. It saved my life."

Dr. Miles' Nervine Triumphs.

Excessive Nervousness from Childhood.
La Grippe Brings on Heart Weakness.

REV. B. P. SEAREY, pastor M. E. church, Buchanan, Ga. writes Dec. 10, 1893: "In childhood I was afflicted with excessive nervousness, which, almost developed into St. Vitus dance. I particularly recovered, but at college it gradually grew worse. Close study aggravated the trouble; any unusual exertion caused trembling all over. In 1890 I had a severe attack of La Grippe which brought on heart weakness. I had been almost constantly under treatment for nervous troubles, and changed climates frequently without avail. Last February I began taking Dr. Miles' Nervine. It restored my Nervine and Nerve and Liver Pills and since then I have been studying more and working harder than for years and the good effects that have resulted seem to be permanent."

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle sent free or money refunded. Book on Heart and Nervousness free to all applicants. DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

The Recent Down-Pour.

People who suffered by the extraordinary rainfall of Thursday night may find some comfort in the thought that they are not likely to suffer again in the same way. Never in the entire history of the Weather Bureau has such an extraordinary down-pour occurred in this vicinity. A fall of rain of more than an inch is regarded as a heavy rain, but when such a fall is multiplied by about 5, as was that of the sixteen hours following 6:15 Thursday evening it became a weather event from which weather history in this locality can henceforth be dated and compared. The average total rainfall for the entire 365 days is but five times what Thursday night's rainfall amounted to.—Cincinnati Times Star.

The matter has been kept a profound secret until this time. The marriage was performed by Rev. Applegate, pastor of the Brownstown Presbyterian church, at his residence. The bride is the daughter of James S. Clements and the groom is the son of the county clerk, Capt. Byford E. Long. Both are well known and have a large circle of friends who, even at this late day, extend hearty congratulations. Their marriage announcement was quite a surprise especially to their most intimate friends.

Heart Disease Cured.

When a well known minister after suffering for years with heart disease, is cured, it is not surprising that he should publish the fact for the benefit of others. Rev. J. P. Smith, 1045 Fulton St., Baltimore, Md., writes: "For years I suffered from a severe form of heart disease. I used Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and my heart is now in good condition. Recently, after a long illness, I was unable to get up. There was humming, painful sensations on top and back of my head. Fifteen minutes reading would make me almost wild; there were pulling and drawing sensations in my legs all the time, so that I could not sit still. In this condition I began taking Dr. Miles' Restorative. Nerve and its effect was simply wonderful. I heartily commend your remedies." Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on Heart and Nerve sent free to all applicants. DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

From Cripple Creek. After the big fire in Cripple Creek, I took a very severe cold and tried many remedies without help, the cold only becoming more settled. After using three small bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, both the cough and cold left me, and in this high altitude it takes a meritorious cough remedy to do any good.—G. B. We all know that any tired muscle can be restored by rest. Your stomach is a muscle. Dyspepsia is its manner of saying "I am tired. Give me rest." To rest the stomach you must do its work outside of the body.

This is the Shaker's method of curing indigestion, and it success is best at-ested by the fact that these people are practically free from what it with-out doubt the most prevalent of all dis-eases. The Shaker Digestive Cordial not only contains digested food which is promptly absorbed without taxing the tired digestive organs, but it is like-wise an aid to the digestion of other foods in the stomach. A 10 cent trial bottle will convince you of its merit and these you can obtain through all druggists.

Women and Banks. Said a bank cashier of this city: "Some few days ago a woman came in with a check for $500 made payable to her. I didn't know her and refused to cash it without the identification of the maker signifying that the indorsement was O. K. She didn't understand what I meant, but seemed to think I was re-fusing for pure casuedness. "But, madam, it is against the bank rules to give any money to people we don't know," I explained. "I don't know you. Any one might find a check on the street and bring it in here to be cashed." "She regarded this as a reflection on her honesty. "What's that you say, young man? shaking her parasol at me. And for once I blessed my cage, which protected me from her indignation. "I might have found the check on the street, you young whipper snapper you! What do you take me for? I'd have you know that I'm an honest woman and not going around picking up checks." "I believe it, madam," I said, try-ing to appease her; but, all the same, I can't give you the money without the maker identifying your indorsement." "In great dudgeon she went out and returned in half an hour with the prop-er indorsement. Viciously thrusting the check in the window, she said, "Now, young man, refuse to give me that mon-ey if you dare!" "As I handed her out $500 in bills she remarked sotto voce: "Picked it up in the street, did I! Umph!"—Phila-delphia Press.

The Nemo Around Her. Mr. Rudolf Lehmann declares that he once found political animosity of great service to him in painting a portrait. His sitter was a London lady who be-longed to a family renowned for its stanch political opinions. It was the height of summer and very hot. The lady was inclined to be stout, and under the influence of the heat she now and then fell into a nap, to the serious an-noyance of the painter. Her husband, who knew her weakness in this regard, asked Mr. Lehmann in the lady's absence if he had experienced any trouble of this kind. Mr. Lehmann could not deny it. "Very well," said the husband, "the next time it occurs you just mention Mr. Gladstone, and you will have no further difficulty."

The artist took the hint, with imme-diate effect. Henceforth the lady was al-most too wide awake.—Youth's Cam-panton.

In an interview with several farmers yesterday, they say that a great amount of growing wheat that was supposed, nevertheless, has since the rain and fair weather, been coming out beyond their expectation, and will make an average crop except in some low ground where the water has stood for some days.—Columbus Star.

A youth who lives in a town in which a curfew ordinance is about to be enacted, expresses his opinion as follows: "Oh, I guess it's all right, but it would be a great sight better if it took in pa and ma and the rest of the family. You see it's going to be hard on me at times when pa is at lodge, and ma is somewhere playing whist, and sis is at a dance, and Jim is out skylarking with the boys. This leaves me and the dog at home alone, that is if I ain't somewhere else, which won't be healthy you see."—Ex.

FROM TRIFLING CIRCUMSTANCES.

Indications in the Boy's Life That Prove Prophetic of His Future.

Carlyle says that you can tell how a man would do anything from the way he sings. However this may be, it is certainly true in nine cases out of ten that you can tell what sort of a man the boy will make from seeing him at play when obliged to stay indoors without a companion. Lord (then plain William) Armstrong, the famous engineer, was a delicate boy, and one winter when 6 years old was confined to the house for months. To amuse himself he set several old spinning wheels in motion by weights descending on strings from top to bottom of the house over the staircase railing.

Friends and relatives brought mechanical toys for the little prisoner, which he at once pulled to pieces. It was not satisfactory to him to see "Jack" jump up in the "box" when the lid was raised. He would know what made "Jack" spring up.

One day, while fishing near a rustic mill, the water wheel attracted his attention, because it was fed by a rill above which descended from a height of nearly 100 feet. Seeing that only 20 feet of the descent was utilized, he pondered the question, "Why not use the whole descent of the stream as a motive power?" A swinging lamp in a church suggested to Galileo the pendulum as a means of measuring time, and Armstrong saw in the descending rill power for a hydraulic crane. He invented one, and it attracted the attention of leading engineers.

Lord Armstrong's name is now, as most of our readers know, identified with huge rifled cannon, the manufacture of large projectiles and the building of mighty vessels of war.—Scottish American.

Watch Competitions

Very few people know that there are, in connection with the Geneva watch trade, competitions involving very large sums of money, a goodly proportion of which finds its way into England.

A certain number of watchmakers at Geneva nominate certain dealers in England who shall hold competition watches made by the former, and the names of such dealers are agreed to by the whole of the said makers. Prizes ranging from £300 downward are given to the makers whose particular watches shall keep the best time and remain in the finest condition during 12 months.

The English dealers who hold the watches during the 12 months have to keep a daily record in regard to the loss or gain of time evidenced by their charges, and they are of course in absolute honor bound to keep a correct one and not to tamper with the watches beyond winding them. No given maker's watch in the competition bears any name or distinctive mark other than the peculiarities of construction by which the name of the maker can be identified by the holder. The watches are of the usual kind manufactured for trading purposes and not mere "exhibition" watches, and the holder of each prize winner receives one-half of the award.—London Standard.

Her Hat.

It was just before the bandeau as an item of hat decoration retired into obscurity. A pretty damsel with a black Gainsborough, well tilted at an acute angle by the pale blue bandeau that rested on her fluffy hair, sat in a crowded Broadway cable car, opposite a shabby old figure in a shawl, who slumbered fitfully, giving out a suspicious rum odor. Suddenly the sleeper roused herself, stared stupidly at her vis-a-vis for a moment, and then, lurching forward in her seat, said with a watery smile, "Yer hat's on crooked."

The damsel turned her head away in flushed indignation, but the elderly dame would not be misunderstood. She leaned still farther forward, and, pointing a wavering forefinger at the offending bandeau, reiterated: "It's you. Yer hat's on crooked!" The passengers by this time took an active interest in the bandeau as well. The Gainsborough maiden looked helplessly around, made a wild signal to the conductor and took refuge in ignominious flight.—New York World.

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common water glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates a diseased condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is positive evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in relieving pain in back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain passing it or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists price fifty cents and one dollar. For a sample bottle and pamphlet, both sent free by mail, mention the Seymour Republican, and send your full post-office address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. ## John R. McLean's Great Newspaper.

Without a single exception, there is beyond doubt no greater or more popular newspaper in the United States than the Cincinnati Enquirer; or a more successful publisher than its proprietor, Mr. John R. McLean. The old-time prices for the Daily Enquirer have been maintained, and its circulation largely increased each year; hard times and cheaper journals failing to arrest its onward march and its high appreciation of the public for its true worth and merit.

The Weekly Enquirer at beginning of the campaign year was offered at 50 cents a year, and its circulation increased by the addition of over 200,000 new subscribers; the most substantial and coveted testimonial a publisher could desire.

When asked for the secret of such success, Mr. McLean frankly answers: The Enquirer has no opinions to force upon its patrons, it simply prints the facts and tells the truth that the reader may form his own opinions. By maintaining the price of the paper, more news and greater variety can be furnished, and every class of business interests catered to, which a cheaper journal cannot afford.

The very liberal support given the Enquirer by the public at large, makes incumbent upon the management to serve it faithfully with zeal and enterprise in minor matters as well as those of greater magnitude.
